19:21:13 From Amy Scott : Yaasssss!

19:21:13 From Charlene Cloutier to All panelists : Technology, trying Google Classroom with grades 3-6 but I think we need to actually email parents for the younger grades. 19:25:49 From Oriana Russe : For Example: Time to be Creative, and Flexible to find Solutions!

I've included links for things you may have at home that are unusual art materials but can still make great art. Think of this as a challenge to continue your progress and art pieces. You can use any material found at home, cardboard, scraps, wax paper, baking paper, butcher paper, paper bags, actual drawing paper if you have it. Anything goes as long as it's 2D and you can take a picture to submit online.

19:29:11 From Martina : The Art Assignment Channel on YouTube is awesome for Art History. The language is definitely more advanced, so I l'd only recommend for Grades 10-12

19:29:14 From danielle : Thank you Val!!!

19:29:16 From Anna Mafchir : Just chiming in.

19:29:16 From Heather Hagy : Saint Augustine here!~

19:29:17 From Sarah Krajewski : Thanks for sharing! I think that districts would hopefully be understanding to allow you to link to others youtube videos, especially if you've never created video content before. It should especially be alright if the video is public! :)

19:29:18 From KateN to All panelists : My school moved to Microsoft earlier this year, including Teams which has a video function similar to Zoom. We ran practice runs with our students all week before the break. Fingers crossed its a seamless transition. We have told them that the school day is structured the same as normal and we will take attendance as normal by check-ins through chat

19:29:34 From Oriana Russe : Thanks Val

19:29:42 From Becky Lee to All panelists : I use YouTube in class all the time...it lets me bring experts into the classroom to help teach!

19:29:47 From jataylor to All panelists : we no longer have access to our school or rooms. have to think about big picture needs. even if you had access with materials, think about students. they might not have any of those materials. I'm thinking resourceful- what do I have access to that I can teach with. ;)

19:29:56 From Kristina Anderson to All panelists : <https://safeyoutube.net/>

19:29:58 From danielle : for contemporary high school art history I think art21 really has some great videos

19:30:01 From mrussell : My students have really been enjoying "Zentangles" and there are really great utube videos

19:30:03 From Geneva Loeck to All panelists : A lot of teachers have made their private YouTube channels public recently to help others for this reason

19:30:16 From tracy.ferguson to All panelists : if someone does not want their youtube channel for public viewing, they make it that way. SO you are okay to use any public youtube

19:30:22 From Natassja : OMG I had an email last night at midnight...

19:30:29 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : YES! Office hours!!!

19:30:33 From victoria to All panelists : oh heck no!

19:30:37 From Tasia Rosas to All panelists : Zentangle projects are a great idea especially in connection to mental health, good suggestion :)

19:30:40 From Alexis : I wish art21 would make a clean version of some of their videos. I can't show some of the stuff without editing it due to language .

19:30:56 From Casey Kemper : Agreed about the Art 21

19:31:01 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Then kids can plan ahead! If you missed it, here is Amber's download 7 Tips to Stay Sane While Teaching from Home https://theartofeducation.edu/content/uploads/2020/03/7_Things_to_Keep_in_Mind_When_Teaching_from_Home.pdf

19:31:04 From melissaenderle to All panelists : Get Snagit for free (through June). <http://links.email.techsmithmail.com/servlet/>

19:31:05 From danielle : yeah, i agree its tough to find the right one and i mean that with right content and right language.

19:31:09 From Cyndi to All panelists : We have open email, we are not allowed to talk to the students other than on Google Classroom and email. There is absolutely no video chatting at all allowed.

19:31:16 From Ginny Geoghegan : Great point about being consistently available!

19:31:16 From lmap to All panelists : I think our administrator is going to coordinate our office hours so we are not conflicting with core classes.

19:31:20 From Heather White to All panelists : I was also thinking of revisiting Zentangles too, there are lots of resources & it's good timing for such mindful art.making for students.

19:31:20 From jataylor to All panelists : yes amber! learned that- setting boundaries and office hours for sure this week!

19:31:28 From Christine : Can you suggest any art21 episodes which don't require editing?

19:31:29 From Alexis : the art 21 videos are genius.. how hard would it be for them to bleep them for schools.

19:31:30 From Nina Silitch to All panelists : Can some take notes on this webinar and then share as a Google doc like you do for the AOE Virtual conferences?

19:31:31 From Sauer : Artrageous with Nate is AMAZING and is doing daily at home project videos now.

19:31:34 From Wynita Harmon to All panelists : Fantastic tips, Amber!

19:31:42 From victoria : Fake or Fortune on Netflix (I think there's some on YouTube as well) is an interesting show for HS maybe upper MS

19:31:43 From Sauer : Geared toward middle school

19:31:50 From Casey Kemper : I started publicly allowing parents to be facebook friends and follow me on instagram

19:31:58 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Looks like a LOT of people are looking for CLEAN art21 clips...anybody have a suggestion???

19:32:00 From Elizabeth Moore to All panelists : My district has already set office hours for all teachers and homeroom teachers have to call 5 students per day

19:32:13 From Karen Melvin to All panelists : ART21 episodes that are clean:

19:32:15 From Alexis : I'm thinking about setting up a school focused instagram account

19:32:20 From tracy.ferguson to All panelists : I have an art Facebook page

19:32:27 From danielle : do it!! school IG is great!

19:32:41 From Sarah Krajewski : Go for it Alexis, it's a great community!

19:32:44 From srtsospooky to All panelists : I tell parents about Instagram. it's very helpful at times!

19:32:49 From peggy : Hi Everyone, Great idea on boundaries. Thanks!

19:32:50 From NEMA to All panelists : I'm having trouble keeping up with all the great suggested art resources and the webinar. Will this Webinar Chat be archived to review later/

19:32:50 From sarah Winterscheidt to All panelists : Can we get a copy of this thread. Great ideas!

19:32:55 From Barb : Another upper level resource for students to be introduced to working artists and a type of art project is from PBS- Art Assignment

19:33:00 From Heather White to All panelists : I love my art room instagram account

19:33:09 From Dana Lockhart : I've had to only let me as teacher post in google classroom due to inappropriate comments...is there a workaround to approve posts before they are put up?

19:33:11 From Christine : A school-focused IG is a great way to promote your program and all the great things you're doing in your classroom!

19:33:16 From Tarrah Pagel to All panelists : How do you guys handle inappropriate posts with IG accounts? Do you approve everything before it is posted?

19:33:18 From Rosio Padilla to All panelists : does anyone know what the rules are on reading a book/sharing an artwork in a video posting it on Youtube?

19:33:36 From peggy : Remember, many of the Art Museums now across the world are allowing for virtual tours for the public.

19:33:43 From Heather White to All panelists : I'm still loving that #1. Let go of perfection, thank you, I needed that! I think there's high expectations of the output from art teachers.

19:33:53 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : I love that Peggy, I feel like I've seen some good lists...

19:34:06 From srtsospooky to All panelists : I saw that post on pbs and shared it on my website!

19:34:17 From Erin Walker : <https://www.travelandleisure.com/attractions/museums-galleries/museums-with-virtual-tours>

19:34:26 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Thanks!

19:34:30 From Karen Melvin : ART21 episodes that are clean:
Elizabeth Murray, Mark Bradford, and Olafur Eliasson, also check out the NYCcloseUp episodes...

19:34:37 From Imrap to All panelists : Should there be a comments/ask question folder?

19:34:37 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : YES!!! Thank you!!!

19:34:42 From Jordann Lenhart to All panelists : my question is if students no longer have grade for this quarter (fl) how do we encourage them to do the work if it's not a grade?

19:34:45 From Alexis : Thank you Karen!!!

19:34:52 From emilyumphlett to All panelists : We have to be careful with online museums because of some in appropriate art/ age appropriate...

19:34:55 From Melinda Cohea to All panelists : Dana, Copy and paste the question and your answer into the stream, and then all future questions that are the same thing say "Check the stream!"

19:35:00 From danielle : thabks karen

19:35:00 From aliya chinoy to All panelists : Thank you!

19:35:01 From Ben Lundsten to All panelists : INCREDIBLE! Thank you wow

19:35:01 From amandamcalpin to All panelists : Art Museums is a good idea for students who has access to Wifi and a digital device. What about students who do not have this resources?

19:35:02 From RONALD MUNIZ to All panelists : is it a good ideas to survey the students to see what they want to be their goals?

19:35:04 From Traci Hassell : Thank you so much!

19:35:04 From Karen Melvin : I'm trying to think of more... working on it

19:35:11 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Karen, you are appreciated!

19:35:12 From Kelsey : all of the goals mentioned are great... i want my students to keep creating. I'm worried I can't reach all my students because they may not have internet or art supplies.

19:35:13 From anne1 to All panelists : Thank you Amber.

19:35:21 From kirstenredmond-delesdernier to All panelists : Amber that was extremely helpful and freeing! Thank you.

19:35:27 From Heidi : Thank you for your ideas, Amber!

19:35:33 From Elizabeth Moore to All panelists : I had a student complete an assignment early and send it to "the email app." I could not see it or find it...I emailed him back and reminded him to post his artwork photos in the Google Slides slideshow assignment that I set up in my Google Classroom. I'm happy that students are already responding to the assignments!!

19:35:38 From Heather Hagy : I'm going to put out a survey to find out what my kids have for the most part.....

19:35:55 From Erin Calamari : That's a great idea!

19:36:03 From paige to All panelists : A survey is a great idea!!

19:36:05 From Jane Taylor : I already feel better. thanks so much ARTOFED

19:36:07 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : A survey is a great idea! I was thinking about using Google classroom for that!

19:36:09 From sleepyartist to All panelists : Dana- you have the ability to delete any student post and to mute conversations

19:36:09 From Heather Hagy : I'm also going to suggest materials that are household items.... that most homes have.

19:36:12 From Kelly : I'm feeling very uncertain about the range of things my students are needing (logistically, emotionally, etc). Would it be crazy to create a Google Form to ask them what they need most and try to address these needs on an individual basis?

19:36:15 From kbirdsallthomas to All panelists : I want to create a resource list for my parents/students- so thanks for all these great links! I want to give specific assignments and videos, but I know my elementary students AND parents are struggling keeping kids entertained

19:36:15 From Anna Mafchir : I'm feeling the same way Kelsey about reaching all of my students.

19:36:20 From Kelsey : those are great ideas.

19:36:21 From Becky Lee to All panelists : Agreed! Our students are super overwhelmed and we're backing way off with what we expect from them each week.

19:36:23 From tracy.ferguson to All panelists : Same Kelsey, but I think its really impossible to cover every issue out there...600 kids, 600 different supplies at home. I am going to do a choice board to hopefully cover that as much as possible. we can only do so much

19:36:23 From Alex to All panelists : Something that my mentor teacher did (I'm student teaching right now) is she collaborated with the other Related Arts teachers (PE, Music, Library) and they made a related arts bingo card and students have to do 2 items for each class a week.

19:36:25 From peggy : Survey is a great idea! Thanks!

19:36:59 From Heidi Black : KEEP IT SIMPLE!

19:37:03 From Deb : Are they sleeping? LOL!!!

19:37:04 From Shelley Bertram to All panelists : I thought about making the first assignment a survey!

19:37:04 From Jordann Lenhart to All panelists : Orr kids that are turning in others work

19:37:06 From Travis : Anyone ever done Art Zoom on YouTube or Google Arts and Culture?

19:37:08 From Jenn Myer : HEATHER rocks- Its Jenn from Landrum

19:37:20 From anne.dowland to All panelists : How do you grade 600 elementary students during this time?

19:37:21 From Roger Stryker : Contact parents?

19:37:27 From Carole Bronzino to All panelists : We are not taking grades, I am seeing that students are not doing the assignments because of this

19:37:28 From SM to All panelists : Has anyone taught online for elementary kids (over 700 students)?

19:37:29 From Erin Walker : Goggle Arts and CULTure has some great resources

19:37:29 From Dawn Stevens to All panelists : AAAAAHHHHHHH! You're reading my min!

19:37:30 From Michael Ann Mikie Verkon-Elliott to All panelists : Love Google Arts and culture!

19:37:31 From Heather Hagy : i like the idea of using a survey to find out what they need- and maybe have prompts for wellness- also - do a video of how to make a sketchbook from household materials.

19:37:36 From kirstenredmond-delesdernier to All panelists : I'm so not worried about them actually turning things in (I'm elementary)...I just want them to create. They have other things they HAVE to turn in, I want art to be that place where they have space to work or not to work.

19:37:40 From Emilie Fisher : I`m going to try to have my upper elementary students do an art history assignment with the Arts and Culture.

19:37:48 From Karen Melvin : More ART21 clean episodes: Nick Cave (I think), DoHoSu (wonderful segment on the theme of Home)...

19:37:51 From Elizabeth Moore to All panelists : ESOL students may need support. Collaborate with your ESOL teacher when those students reach out to you.

19:37:52 From melissalyn to All panelists : I loooooove Google Arts and Culture

19:37:55 From Victoria Thor : I have surveyed my students. It's very helpful.

19:38:00 From anne1 to All panelists : I love exploring Google Arts and Culture but not sure how to use with elementary age students.

19:38:02 From katie to All panelists : I have SO MANY parents who disregard Art as a junk course/waste of time and are only focused on core....so I'm counting on creating really engaging and fun activities for kids to do that helps them to get out of their heads

19:38:19 From Rebecca Stephens : THANK YOU!

19:38:21 From Roger Stryker : What about parent communication?

19:38:21 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : FYI: If this chat is running too quickly for you, never fear: we are putting together a transcript so we have everybody's great ideas!

19:38:22 From Sarah Krajewski : Thank you so much Amber, you are amazing!

19:38:23 From Oriana Russe : Let it goooooo ;)

19:38:23 From Traci Hassell : ty!!

19:38:23 From emilyumphlett to All panelists : thank you!

19:38:23 From Barb to All panelists : What is Amber' last name?

19:38:25 From kbirdsallthomas to All panelists : Thanks so much!

19:38:26 From Martina : YES!! thank you!!

19:38:27 From Erin Calamari : Thank you Amber!

19:38:27 From kmetzler : thank you

19:38:29 From Tarrah Pagel to All panelists : Thanks Amber!

19:38:29 From Victoria Thor : Thank you!

19:38:30 From susan moffat : Thanks amber

19:38:30 From Jordann Lenhart to All panelists : thanks amber!

19:38:31 From victoria : THANK. YOU AMBER!!!!

19:38:32 From Tamara Carrigan : Awesome!

19:38:32 From Ben Lundsten to All panelists : Thanks Amber!

19:38:33 From miranda b : thank you

19:38:34 From Kara Pinkerton to All panelists : thank you!

19:38:35 From Melissa Schulman : Thanks!

19:38:35 From peggy : Thanks Amber!

19:38:36 From sarah Winterscheidt to All panelists : Can we make a doc open for all these resources?

19:38:36 From kelly to All panelists : thank you so much!

19:38:36 From Michael Ann Mikie Verkon-Elliott to All panelists : Thank you Amber!

19:38:36 From katie to All panelists : Fabulous tips

19:38:36 From Kelsey : thanks Amber.

19:38:36 From fmsArt : for those that don't respond, do you call home?

19:38:37 From paige to All panelists : Amber that was so helpful!!

19:38:37 From Jocelyn Pannell to All panelists : thank you!

19:38:37 From Jennifer : Thanks!! Great info Amber!

19:38:38 From Heather Evans to All panelists : That was great thanks Amber

19:38:38 From Heather White to All panelists : THANK YOU: "You've got to do what you can do & then let it go!" agreed:)

19:38:39 From melanie : thanks amber!

19:38:40 From Elizabeth : GREAT list, Amber. Thank you!

19:38:40 From Therese : Thank you!

19:38:41 From Chris to All panelists : Thank you Amber great ideas and support!

19:38:42 From Meredith Hopkins (POL) to All panelists : Thank you!

19:38:43 From Christine : Thank you, Amber!

19:38:43 From peggy : HI Jen

19:38:44 From CBrandt to All panelists : Thanks!

19:38:45 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Thank you Amber!

19:38:45 From aliya chinoy to All panelists : Thanks Amber!

19:38:46 From Casey Kemper : Great job Amber!

19:38:46 From Christy to All panelists : Contacting the kids parents

19:38:48 From aliya chinoy to All panelists : hi Jen

19:38:48 From danielkatelynng : For people who have surveyed students: what platform worked for you? Has anyone done this for elementary students?

19:38:48 From VIVIAN to All panelists : Thank YOU!

19:38:49 From Stephanie : thanks!

19:38:50 From Anna Mafchir : Thank you.

19:38:50 From Brooke to All panelists : Thank you Amber!

19:38:52 From Travis : Thank you Amber!

19:38:52 From Mattea Weinberg : Thank you and hello!

19:38:57 From Alexis : Amber is amazing... thank you for your words of wisdom

19:38:58 From Meghan S to All panelists : Thank you!! Very helpful Amber!

19:39:00 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Welcome Jen!

19:39:01 From Kelly : I've read a lot of school administrators saying that we may not be able to hold students accountable for these weeks. It may come down to individual schools. Planning to ask my Admin.

19:39:02 From Charlene Cloutier to All panelists : I am finding out that most of the grade 3-6 kids can use google classroom but for the younger ones the teachers are relying on email. I made a bunch of power points but depending on the format I can't necessarily share them via their parents' emails....might need to take some power points and cut/paste them into word documents to send them. One teacher started a Facebook site called "What do we do today" and I put simple origami videos that I made the past couple of days. Not everyone is on it but they seemed to like them!

19:39:02 From Renee Reyes to All panelists : Thanks Amber!

19:39:05 From Catherine B to All panelists : that was very helpful, thanks!

19:39:06 From imeldavalencia to All panelists : Thank you Amber!

19:39:08 From jataylor to All panelists : hi Jen- I'm also in elmhurst!

19:39:12 From Ms.Van to All panelists : Thanks, Amber! How do I find you on Instagram?

19:39:15 From Elizabeth Moore to All panelists : Can we get a printout of the chat for later? There is some very useful information going through...but it is too fast to record!

19:39:19 From Jordann Lenhart to All panelists : your workspace is so organized! it fan of the labels

19:39:22 From Ramiro Rubio : I will be using Google Forms for the survey.

19:39:27 From Elizabeth : I have elementary age kids, we're on our first week off, my principal and I have agreed to not push them, but instead for me to stay as a resource.

19:39:27 From Renee Malowitz : Great Amber thank you so much, I feel more relaxed already. My glass of wine helps too.
LOL

19:39:28 From Liz Coleman to All panelists : We will be doing pass/fail grades for many classes

19:39:32 From Roger Stryker : Parent involvement, as partners, in making this work!

19:39:33 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Ha!

19:39:54 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Here is Jen's download for you: Download: 3 Video Tools for Digital Learning
https://theartofeducation.edu/content/uploads/2020/03/3VideoToolsforDigitalLearning_Coronavirus.pdf

19:39:57 From Alex to All panelists : @Kelly. I've heard that too. I believe my district has a policy that if 80% of students don't turn assignments in, then it doesn't count.

19:40:01 From Anna Mafchir : How can they hold students accountable if not all students have access to technology. This is what worries me for many of my kiddos.

19:40:06 From sarahmdugan to All panelists : Kelly, same here. All stuff put on GC is now considered "enrichment" and can not be graded - ugh

19:40:52 From Beth Morris to All panelists : We are currently not allowed to take grades. Or teach new content, which I am because I didn't know until today.

19:41:19 From DANIELLE AGIN to All panelists : What is it called?

19:41:26 From AubreyArt to All panelists : That's good. I definitely do not like how I look on video. But I will embrace this

19:41:29 From Becky Lee to All panelists : I have tons of kids who come to school as their safe place, so now that they are all at home, they have bigger safety/wellness concerns than completing school work. Also, tons of kids now taking care of younger siblings.

19:42:03 From Emilie Fisher : Our school is offering paper and online options for assignments. See if your classroom teachers have a list of their students who do not have access to internet. Then you can compile from this list and create a simple paper assignment for them or a non-internet based assignment.

19:42:04 From Anna Mafchir : The district just sent out an option for students to borrow computers but I feel like so many of the students who would need them have language issues and may not have a way to receive the information in the first place.

19:42:10 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Has anyone else used we video?

19:42:42 From melissaenderle to All panelists : Snagit is offering their full version for free too. <http://links.email.techsmithmail.com/servlet/>

19:42:44 From Abby Schukei to All panelists : I love using Quicktime on my MAC for screen recording!

19:42:59 From Kara Pinkerton to All panelists : using this a lot among faculty

19:43:01 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : I posted PDFs on Facebook for kids who don't have devices... a lot of their parents follow my school page on their phones...

19:43:02 From Barb to All panelists : What is Amber's last name? I missed it.

19:43:04 From Dana to All panelists : Over 60% of our students are Spanish speaking.

19:43:11 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : (K-2)

19:43:12 From Amanda Heyn to All panelists : Amber's last name is Kane :)

19:43:57 From Jill : Hi Anna

19:44:10 From Wynita Harmon : I love flip grid!

19:44:14 From Barb : What is Amber's last name? I missed it.

19:44:14 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Me too!

19:44:23 From Tarrah Pagel to All panelists : Kane

19:44:23 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Amber Kane!

19:44:25 From Sarah Krajewski : Amber Kane :)

19:44:26 From Anna Mafchir : Good idea Emilie. This is what I had planned on doing.

19:44:34 From Cassidy Reinken : Kids love Flipgrid!

19:44:54 From Nina Silitch : Can you share this PDF?

19:44:55 From Anna Mafchir : Hi Jill

19:44:58 From kbirdsallthomas to All panelists : oh that's cool!

19:45:00 From Anna Mafchir : Hi Dr. Harmon

19:45:11 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Here is her download again! Download: 3 Video Tools for Digital Learning
https://theartofeducation.edu/content/uploads/2020/03/3VideoToolsforDigitalLearning_Coronavirus.pdf

19:45:22 From Amy Scott : I enjoy flip grid's ease of use! My students love it! I have been using it for book reports for the one Career class I teach.

19:45:26 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : But we are also archiving this chat:)

19:45:28 From jen hench to All panelists : With flip grid do students need to be live?

19:45:29 From VAL GROLLMAN : The resources are in the email you got earlier.

19:45:30 From AubreyArt to All panelists : yay for Flipgrid

19:45:33 From Ruth to All panelists : can you make a gif in screencastify and then use it on another platform?

19:45:35 From marni to All panelists : so flip grid is like a live schoology discussion?

19:45:38 From kbirdsallthomas to All panelists : what's your youtube account Jen Leban?

19:45:47 From kathryn samaltanos to All panelists : what is your youtube channel called?

19:46:05 From Shelley Bertram to All panelists : resources are also here: https://theartofeducation.edu/coronavirus-webinar/?utm_campaign=COVID-19%20&utm_source=hs_email&utm_medium=email&utm_content=84974040&_hsenc=p2ANqtz-9rE1hBaKmpizSCJbyaZjdf03Vib4w6h5PmL8M6pVJkDaFfaux84MoKdPWQDLp2zYa7bVozObA8ORGzX91fkJt-3x-yQGfpyuG1h4vsp1vaNwon8s&_hsmi=84974040

19:46:06 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Yes! The email and All the downloads are at <https://theartofeducation.edu/coronavirus-webinar/>

19:46:08 From mmadsen : I used Flipgrid for the first time last week and it worked great! Almost all of my 4th graders responded and then commented on each other projects. Parents thanked me because the students could see their friends that they missed.

19:46:17 From April.Turner to All panelists : What should you use to simply post a "gallery" where students can comment on each other's work and you can see photos of work collected in one place?

19:46:19 From Melissa Schulman : That's awesome Jen!

19:46:27 From paige to All panelists : was it hard to set up?

19:46:27 From Casey Kemper : Would love the info!

19:46:34 From Casey Kemper : Dang two!!!

19:46:38 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Also, AOE's own Megan Dehner recently wrote an article featuring apps that help you to teach art remotely. <https://theartofeducation.edu/2020/03/15/the-best-apps-to-help-you-teach-art-remotely/>

19:46:42 From Amy to All panelists : padlet?

19:46:42 From miranda b : Thank you Jen

19:46:44 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Thanks Jen!

19:46:53 From AubreyArt to All panelists : Thank you Jen

19:47:00 From Dana to All panelists : Thank you, Jen!

19:47:04 From Rebecca Stephens : Thank you for all the info it really helps!!!!

19:47:09 From kbirdsallthomas to All panelists : I tried to do youtube! It's challenging...I've been doing twitch art illustrations which has been fun, but not great for education

19:48:25 From Laurie Sweet to All panelists : Thanks If you can share the free version for Screencastify, that would be awesome! About to embark on K-6 Google Classroom.

19:49:24 From Jackie Passeti : Thanks, Jen!

19:49:30 From Betty P. : Is anyone teaching via Facebook? Some grade level teachers are doing this. For specials teachers, we have multiple grade levels/classes. Would I have to have a separate account for each group I create?

19:49:49 From Becky Lee to All panelists : I have a facebook page for my elementary arts program.

19:49:56 From Alejandra Marín to All panelists : Thank u Jen!!

19:50:04 From ToriAnne to All panelists : how do you address limited access to materials for students at home when teaching virtually?

19:50:06 From Becky Lee to All panelists : Most of my teachers have Facebook groups, so they can share my videos and info with their students. It's been great

19:50:08 From Carole Bronzino to All panelists : Thank you Jen

19:50:09 From Anna Mafchir : I have been wondering the same thing about different accounts for different grade levels.

19:50:11 From Jen Leban : Please dont hesitate to reach out to me (Twitter tends to be the quickest!) @MrsLeban

19:50:12 From giseleconn to All panelists : Amen.

19:50:36 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : If you are interested in all the previously posted free resources from these platforms, check out this link. There are a lot of documents that could work for online teaching here! <https://theartofeducation.edu/resources/>

19:50:40 From Christine Rilling to All panelists : My plan was to separete by grade level -- that will keep as normal as possible and easy to get back when school resumes

19:50:41 From Alejandra Marín to All panelists : ;)

19:50:42 From Joanna Bolding to All panelists : @jenleban thanks <3 you seem like an awesome teacher <3

19:50:51 From giseleconn to All panelists : WE need the support in order to pass it on to our students...

19:50:51 From Liza Johnson : Yay! I have 4 of my own kiddos that are now home with me each day too!

19:50:56 From Renae Eadens to All panelists : Is there going to be a discount for Flex right now? For the students to see the videos??!!

19:51:01 From VIVIAN to All panelists : that sounds like my plan. A separate FB page - closed group- for each class. I also use REMIND to communicate with my students.

19:51:03 From kbirdsallthomas : I've been curious if I could do YouTube live...but then I don't know if that's safe for my students

19:51:06 From Amanda to All panelists : Thanks Jen! just subscribed to both channels

19:51:18 From Anna Mafchir : I have been sharing prompts and students send photos with their responses but I would like to have specific things for different grades. All 9 of them.

19:51:35 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Wow! 9 preps! You are busy!

19:51:37 From anne1 to All panelists : Is anyone using Nearpod?

19:51:45 From Heather White to All panelists : I'm managing my 6-12 life through Google Classroom, and my k-5 life through my art room instagram account. I was thinking of using a website to manage all my videos, does anyone have any suggestions? SquareSpace? GoDaddy? Does anyone use a website platform they love?

19:51:45 From kbirdsallthomas : Is Zoom pretty easy?

19:51:48 From Tiffany Frohm to All panelists : I've been trying the flex lessons out on my own children.

19:51:52 From Derek Balsley to All panelists : www.theartofeducation.edu/flex is what they're talking about 19:51:55 From Susan Piro to All panelists : did anyone write down the 3 sites she just gave?

19:51:59 From Becky Lee to All panelists : Zoom is really easy to set up

19:52:02 From Kelsey : is anyone using google classroom?

19:52:03 From Barb Gronefeld to All panelists : At this time are you offering Flex at a reduced rate or discount?

19:52:03 From Kelly : Jen, I told my students that I would put the onus on myself in regards to new technology. Would Flipgrid be challenging for my High School students to use?

19:52:04 From Jackie Passetti : I thought about doing YouTube live, but instead I'm going to record videos and post them for students to watch on their own schedule. Live is too hard to manage - many households have multiple students sharing devices for their classes.

19:52:04 From kirstenredmond-delesdernier to All panelists : Zoom has been awesome.

19:52:06 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : I have been doing zoom with kids this week and I LOVE it. But I am very new to the platform...

19:52:31 From wendi : is FLEX supplements in english and spanish? access for majority of my families would be limited based on language.

19:52:34 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : If you would like someone at AOEU to talk to your district about these platforms, fill out the form here: <https://theartofeducation.edu/webinar-product-questions/>
You can also call 515.293.7018 to speak with someone and get your questions answered!

19:52:34 From Ginny Geoghegan : LMS = Learning Management System

19:52:38 From Becky Lee to All panelists : yes, google classroom with my HS students. I like the forms because students can answer any type of question, including uploading photos/documents

19:52:40 From Dawn Stevens to All panelists : YES! I am using Google Classroom

19:52:41 From tracy.ferguson to All panelists : I haven't tried it yet, but I think google classroom allows you to have different classes. I have been told that is the easiest way to go. A lot of the class room teachers are using this, so it will be familiar too

19:52:42 From Jackie Passetti : I have a pre-existing Google site that I'm posting info on, not a Google classroom

19:52:46 From Laura Machacek to All panelists : what does that mean?

19:52:47 From Jen Leban : @Kelly - Yes, Flipgrid - totally easy for HS!

19:53:01 From Melissa Swaidner to All panelists : I love zoom...we are using it with our school K-5... the special areas are having a time with students through zoom.

19:53:01 From AubreyArt to All panelists : We are using Google Meet for some live interactive teaching.

19:53:08 From Jackie Quinn : What to teachers think about using seesaw?

19:53:09 From kbirdsallthomas : I love twitch...but there are so many trolls that could make it not safe for your kids. It also won't be accessible from many school issued computers. If you decide to do it, get a good moderator

19:53:10 From Tasia Rosas to All panelists : I bet parents miss us so much right now.

19:53:19 From srtsospooky to All panelists : yup! so true!

19:53:55 From Wes Darby to All panelists : FLEX ?

19:53:57 From Jen Leban : @Jill - yep!

19:53:59 From jataylor to All panelists : I know a lot of teachers like seesaw as more of a communication device from classroom to home

19:54:01 From VIVIAN to All panelists : Great advice, Cassidy - Pick 3!

19:54:02 From Gabrielle M. Peña to All panelists : Jill yes!

19:54:03 From Luette to All panelists : Can I use Zoom to have a webinar for my kids to interact with me? I'm thinking once a week.

19:54:03 From Heather Evans to All panelists : yes what is Flex?

19:54:04 From jill : thank!

19:54:09 From tracy.ferguson to All panelists : other art teachers have suggested Seesaw and Artsonia too. I like that Google class room allows you to insert videos and info, and kids can respond

19:54:18 From Deb to All panelists : What is an LMS?

19:54:22 From Kelly Martin : How much does flex cost ? Any discount right now

19:55:04 From Angelika Schafer to All panelists : What is LMS?

19:55:07 From Ms.Van to All panelists : Google Classroom is a great platform! I would recommend that over teaching using Facebook. one thing I love about Classroom is that student work that is submitted is automatically saved in the student's Google Drive and yours. if you ever need a student example, you have a plethora of samples saved digitally! There are so many benefits to using Classroom.

19:55:11 From Joanna Bolding to All panelists : promising

19:55:15 From Jennifer Buchholz to All panelists : Will FLEX content be available in Spanish?

19:55:19 From Ali to All panelists : What is flex

19:56:12 From Elizabeth Moore to All panelists : You can post a link to a video in the comments on the Streaming page on your Google Classroom groups.

19:56:15 From Jennifer Buchholz to All panelists : Will I be able to upload the FLEX content to Schoology?

19:56:27 From Roger Stryker : They aren't reading the comments... display is the problem, I'm thinking as well

19:56:27 From denise to All panelists : your share settings are on extended screen, double check your settings. or drag your flex screen to the right

19:57:21 From Elizabeth Moore to All panelists : Mirroring your screen is in the Zoom video settings - it is a check box

19:57:35 From Jen Leban : @Haya - you can post a link to a Google Hangout/Meet livestream. You can't embed it, but you can link out to it? That should be a good solution.

19:57:39 From Lindsey Moss to All panelists : Pro is more for teacher professional development, Flex is curriculum. HOW to teach vs WHAT you could teach!

19:57:40 From wendi : I posted a question and then I lost connection to the webinar.

19:57:44 From Derek Balsley to All panelists : Valerie - PRO is professional development (for the teacher), FLEX is curriculum (for the students)

20:02:01 From Lindsey Moss : 3 new collections (18 lessons) released per month

20:15:46 From paige to All panelists : I plan to use Artsonia

20:17:22 From michelle : I love it

20:17:25 From Katie Feyereisen to All panelists : If you haven't used Google Classroom yet I highly recommend it. Super easy and user friendly.

20:17:29 From Matt : I have all my students create a digital portfolio through google classroom, simply uploading them to a google slides presentation

20:17:30 From Renae Eadens to All panelists : How can I borrow that video??

20:17:57 From Lindsey Moss : Seems like tea would work!

20:18:02 From Angela Swanner : Yes, Thank you!

20:18:04 From Jordann Lenhart to All panelists : fantastic ideas! do u have a channel or ig?

20:18:50 From Elizabeth Moore to All panelists : How do you see their work in Google Classroom?

20:18:53 From melissalyn to All panelists : I would also think that tea would work. Also, if kids don't have paintbrushes, maybe q-tips?

20:20:44 From tina schmidt to All panelists : dried spaghetti for a bit?

20:21:36 From wendy to All panelists : I had 3 snow Sculptures turned into Google classroom today!
